

Do not change the rules to allow big conglomerates to swallow up the smaller news medias. It is important that the people keep their local news and stations. We want the rules in place that serve the public and not the people with the money to buy your ruling. We urge you to retain the current ownership rules.
Don and Jane Gilbert